- Press Release

With good advice and tireless commitment, you stand by your patients day after day, especially in these challenging COVID19 times – thank you, pharmacy! You provide them with important medicines and dispel the worries of patients in this crisis. You are an essential element at the front lines of our healthcare system. STADA is fulfilling our purpose "Caring for people's health as a trusted partner", our global production network is working at full speed to keep supplying medicines.
