

Thank You Doctor

You never give up and stay strong together against Covid-19 and other diseases: Thank you healthcare professionals for facing one of the toughest challenges we can imagine. Because the virus is unpredictable, but it's also not unbeatable. There is something all of us can do: Never give in. That's why we keep caring for people's health as a trusted partner and why we keep supplying medicines. But most of all, we keep believing in doctors in hospitals, nurses and other healthcare professionals all over the world. They are on permanent duty - against Corona and other diseases.
